VOLUME CIX.--NO. 46. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATRDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 22, 1908. PRICE 2 CENTS

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, bad liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retorversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

DEFENSE OF THE CHESAPEAKE.

Ten million dollars for the fortification of Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk, was asked for yesterday at the hands of the subcommittee on fortifications of the House committee on appropriations, by a delegation composed of citizens of Norfolk, and in charge of Representative Maynard, of Virginia. The delegation comprised W. T. Anderson, president of the Board of Trade; William Baldwin, president of the Real Estate Exchange; J. Edwin Cole, an attorney; Alvah H. Martin, president of the Cape Henry syndicate, and P. H. Larkin.

The War Department in its estimates for fortifications for the next fiscal year included $10,000,000 for the creation and fortification of an artificial island at the entrance of Chesapeake bay, midway of the Virginia Capes. It was to urge the necessity of this appropriation that the Norfolk delegation appeared before the committee. The War Department's total estimate for fortifications for 1909 is approximately $88,000,000, but it is the intention of the appropriations committee to cut down this estimate to something like $10,000,000, and present plans contemplate the expenditure of practically all of that amount in the Hawaiian and Philippine Islands.

Skin Disease of Twenty Years' Standing Cured.

I want you to know how much Chamberlain's Salve has done for me. It has cured my face of a skin disease of almost twenty year's standing. I have been treated by several as smart physicians as we have in this country and they did me no good, but two boxes of this salve has cured me.—Mrs. Fannie Griffen, Troy, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by. W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

MRS. BURDEN ASPHYXIATED.

Mrs. William Proudfit Burden, who was Natica Rives, daughter of Oliver H. P. Belmont, and a society favorite in New York, Newport, and Washington, was found dead in bed at her Fifth avenue home, New York, yesterday. Death, the coroner decided, was accidental and due to gas poisoning. A disconnected gas tube, which had led from a chandelier to a droplight, so placed Thursday night that Mrs. Burden might read while propped up in bed, had permitted a flow of gas that filled the room. Mrs. Burden was twenty-two years of age, and since her marriage, on April 17, 1907, she and her husband had occupied the beautiful home of the latter's father, the late James A. Burden, at 903 Fifth avenue, New York. The discovery of her death threw the household into confusion, and when the facts became generally known they created a sensation in the social set to which the Burdens belong.

TOWN EXCITED.

Newportville, Pa., is excited by the appearance of photographs of Miss Nellie Brown minus clothing. Two men are in the Bucks county jail awaiting trial in the case—one for taking the pictures and the other for showing them about.

Nellie Brown is the daughter of Frank Brown, the village carpenter. She is a slender girl of sixteen years, with dark-brown eyes, fine teeth and an expressive mouth. A great mass of chestnut hair crowns her shapely head, and she appears to be the least disconcerted of any person in Newportville.

"I couldn't help it," says she, in justification of the fact that she posed for the pictures. "Charlie Rowe told me he'd beat me if I didn't."

The photographs were three in number and each a different pose and the most conspicuous feature of the pictures is the absence of any drapery.

According to Brown, his house was besieged for several days before he learned of the photographs by young men, many of them with cameras. They came when he was away, and when he returned in time to meet some of them they always made some excuse about having "broken a spoke" or some other part of their carriage.

"I never saw the pictures myself," said Nellie, "and I didn't know they would get shown around until I heard of young Van Zant doing it. Now what do you think of him doing a thing like that?"

Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 3,000 grains of good food. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

NOTABLE CHURCH UNION.

Following close upon the formation in New York, the other day, of the Anglo-Roman Union, to promote the corporate union of the Anglican Church with the Apostolic See, in which a number of high church Episcopalian clergymen took an active part, came the announcement last night of the organization of the American branch of the Anglican and Eastern Orthodox Churches Union, which has for its aim the union of the American Episcopal, Russian Orthodox and Greek Orthodox Churches.

Rev. Dr. George C. Houghton presided at the meeting, which was held at the parish-house of the Church of the Transfiguration yesterday afternoon. Rev. Charles LeV. Brine, pastor of Christ Church, Portsmouth, N. H., in which the celebrated peace thanksgiving service was held in 1905, after the articles of peace had been signed, was secretary.

Those who attended the meeting were members of a special committee appointed on organization and the formulation of future plans in this country. Rev. Galbraith B. Perry, of St. Luke's Church, Cambridge, N. Y., who has been organizing secretary of the American branch, was elected permanent secretary and Edward S. Gorham, publisher of Church books, was chosen treasurer. The higher offices were not filled, as there is to be two vice presidents, each an official of the American Protestant and the Eastern Church, while the president, who is to be chosen, will be one of the highest dignitaries in the church. Committees were appointed to arrange for a large gathering in this city sometime after Easter.

EXPLOSION AT BAPTISMAL.

President Caceres, of Santo Domingo, is at Cotui, Santo Domingo, helping to care for those injured by the gunpowder explosion at the residence of General Guayubin, Governor of Macoris, during the festivities attendant upon the baptism of a child that was killed at the time.

Seven of the people hurt have since died, General Guayubin is blind and Gen. Luis Tegera, Governor of Santo Domingo, who was among the guests, is badly disfigured.

An investigation shows that while dancing was in progress some person who has not been identified lighted a package of Chinese firecrackers and accidentally threw it into a keg of gunpowder.

The house was wrecked and about 40 of those assembled to celebrate were injured.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

The enthusiasm of old Alexandria was at its highest pitch today, almost every resident of the city, old and young alike, entering into the spirit of a holiday that always appeals to those native and to the manner born. Thousands from the surrounding country, Washington and other places have vied with Alexandrians in paying respect to the memory of George Washington—the first in war, first in peace and who should ever be first in the heart of every citizen of the country.

The twenty-second of February has for over a century been peculiarly a gala day in Alexandria, and there are many reasons why it should be, as the illustrious man whose birth is celebrated on that day was virtually an Alexandrian. He manifested great interest in the little town and divided his attention with it and his quite home on the banks of the Potomac. He was, when not engrossed in official life, in one of the two places. In colonial days and subsequent thereto he could be found in Christ Church on Sundays and at other times in what is now known as Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons. Before the Declaration of Independence he was a familiar figure on our streets and in our market house where he was wont to discuss the issues which brought on the revolutionary war.

A month ago the anniversary of the birth of another great Virginian was appropriately celebrated in Alexandria. It was observed at the time that as the years come and go it is extremely difficult to say anything concerning his genius and virture that has not substantially been uttered by one of the many eulogists who has spoken of his worth. The same may be said concerning George Washington.

The United States is far advanced in its one hundred and thirty-second year. Many truly illustrious men have at times appeared in the country since the scenes at Yorktown, but no matter how many have been in the constellation, the lustre of Washington has never been overshadowed by any of them. He will ever stand head and shoulders above them all.

Pictures of the Father of His Country have been in evidence everywhere in the city today. They have ranged in size from vignettes on buttons to life-size crayons and portraits, and when the shades of evening shall fall he will be looking down from the walls of Alexandria-Washington Lodge upon nocturnal scenes which will be enacted in honor of the birth of its illustrious Past Master who long since passed into the Sanctum Sanctorum of the Grand Master of the Universe.

The Regents at Mount Vernon are keeping his grave green and the George Washington Birthday Association and all other Alexandrians are equally determined to keep his memory sacred.

The pageant today has been in keeping with those of former years. Thousands of persons have visited the city for the purpose of joining in the festivities and there has been joy in the air which will long be remembered.

GRATIFYING reports come from Richmond that the question of holding an extra session does not appeal with much force to the majority. Many of the older men are properly favorable to extending the session for ten days, the members to serve without pay, while there are some who want to compel the governor to convene the body in extra session and to warrant them in drawing pay for the extra thirty days—to get $250, whether they are there ten days or thirty. Governor Swanson is naturally against any such business and it is hoped that he will not yield. The cost of an extra session of thirty days would reach close up to $50,000, and it would not be a guarantee that any measures of consequence would be enacted if it were held. The republicans, to their credit, are dead against an extra session.

THERE is said to be little chance at this session of Congress for legislation establishing an experimental parcel post upon rural free delivery routes. The postoffice committee of the House to which was referred Representative Lafean's bill providing for an experimental service in York county, Pennsylvania, is understood to have rejected the proposition, and to have virtually completed the preparation of the postoffice appropriation bill without permitting any reference to the parcel post to creep into its provisions. The charge is made that the committee was packed against it for the benefit of the mail-order houses of Chicago, and as Mr. Platt, who represents the express companies is violently opposed to anything that will affect the revenue of those companies, the fate of such a measure in the Senate may well be conjectured.

A MEETING of a dozen print paper manufacturers was held at Appleton, Wis., on Tuesday when it is understood, plans were arranged for a merger that will include all the paper mills in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. When this merger is completed a rise rather than the hoped for fall in the price of paper may be expected.

SECRETARY TAFT said in his New Hampshire speech this week that the time has come when the Dingley tariff "should be re-examined with a view to its revision on a purely protective basis." This is an astonishing proposition. Hitherto even violent protectionists have pretended that the tariff was a measure for raising revenue.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

The railroad wage reduction investigation which President Roosevelt ordered the Interstate Commerce Commission to make is regarded wholly as a campaign move. It has fallen far short of its expected purpose, and the partisan literature anticipated will not be forthcoming.

The presidential boon of Secretary Taft is having strange effect on the gentle art of music throughout the country. There are marches, waltzes, and compositions of hybrid movement now on the secretary's desk.

At the annual convocation of George Washington University held today in honor of the birthday of the "Father of His Country," Senator Elmer J. Burkett, of Nebraska, the principal speaker told why, in his opinion governmental ownership of railroads was "inadvisable—constitutionally, economically, or politically."

At a special meeting of the Senate committee on finance held today the nomination of Louis J. Coolidge to be an assistant secretary of the Treasury was ordered reported favorably.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Death of Bishop Satterlee.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 22.—The Rt. Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Washington, died early today after a brief illness from grip.

Henry Y. Satterlee had been bishop of Washington since 1897. He was born in New York, on January 11, 1843, and was graduated from Columbia University in 1863. He was the recipient from that institution of the degree of A. M. in 1866, and L. L. D., in 1897, and of D. D. from Union College in 1882, and from Princeton University in 1890. He was ordained a deacon in 1865; made a priest in 1867; served as assistant from 1865 to 1875, and as rector, from 1875 to 1882, of Zion Church, Wappingtors Falls, N. Y. From 1882 to 1896 he served as rector of Calvary Church, N. Y. He was offered the bishop coadjutorship of Ohio in 1887, and the bishopric of Michigan, in 1889, but declined both. He was author of a number of religious books, and was greatly interested in educational and civic affairs.

The Fleet.

Lima, Feb. 22.—Perus is enjoying a holiday today in joint honor of George Washington and the visiting officers and seamen of the United States battleship squadron.

Rear Admiral Thomas and delegation of the American officers are here today to attend President Pardo's official reception in their honor.

Admiral Evans has so far recovered from his attack of rheumatism that he is able to hobble about the deck of his flagship with a heavy cane but will probably not feel equal to a trip ashore for some time.

More Plots.

Lisbon, Portugal, Feb. 22. (via frontier) —The Lisbon secret police have seized papers disclosing another regicide plot in process of incubation.

Vienna, Feb. 2 —The extent of the assassination plot discovered by the St. Petersburg secret police Thursday is not proving more of a shock to Russian officialdom than is the revelation of the character of the conspirators, according to messages smuggled from the czar's capital.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

Sedalia, Mo., Feb. 22.—An attempt is believed to have been made to wreck Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 4 from Kansas City to St. Louis early today in a cut near Otterville. A rail had been removed from the track and an extra freight which preceded the passenger by ten minutes was ditched. Engineer Robert Johnson and his fireman were buried under the engine and all of the trainmen were injured.

The Situation in Portugal.

Lisbon, Feb. 2—Tension in this city is rapidly increasing and the liviest fears are plainly entertained by King Manuel's advisors of an attempt to overturn the new goverment. The soldiers in the city are still supplied with ball cartridge and every preparation has been completed to act promptly and vigorously at the first sign of disorder.

[COMMUNICATED.

An idea has forcibly impressed me that as long as our citizens take such interest in everything pertaining to the welfare of Alexandria why it is that some one (especially the beneficiaries) does not create an interest among the commissions members and endeavor to secure a steamboat to run from Washington to Coan river and make about two trips a week to satisfy the demands made on this town for merchandise. One of the present steamers stops only on the Maryland side and the other only on the Virginia side by virtue of agreement, which makes a monopoly for both and keeps the rates excessive. The service has been unsatisfactory also. It could not require very much money to keep a boat on this route and it be a tremendous boom to trade here. Some one surely can see the advantage of such a move. H.

News of the Day.

Mrs. Dossyrian Bronson-Howard, nee Skinner, of Norfolk, was granted an absolute divorce in Baltimore yesterday by Judge Gorter from George F. Bronson-Howard, of Baltimore. Mr. Howard is a magazine writer, and the divorce is the end of the sensational marriage, which took place in November, 1906. The divorce was granted upon testimony to the effect that Mr. Howard had been unfaithful.

William Kirby, 60 years old, a stationary engineer, was attacked and stabbed in the neck by a man who hid in the dining room at the Kirby home in Washington early yesterday and the victim died shortly afterward at Providence Hospital. The room in which the attack occurred bore evidence of a struggle between the two men. Patrick Kirby, a 32-year-old son of the murderer man, was arrested and held pending investigation. Later he was released and two negro suspects arrested.

Representative Lilly, who has asked for an investigation into the methods of awarding contracts for submarines and battleships, is to be called before the House committee on rules, and, if his charges are substantiated, an investigation may be ordered.

After struggling with his wife for possession of the weapon and seriously wounding her, J. R. Campbell shot and killed himself in his home in Atlanta, Ga., yesterday.

After hearing Secretary of War Taft in behalf of the bill increasing the number of the Philippine commissioners from eight to nine, the Senate committee on Philippines yesterday ordered a favorable report.

DEATH OF CROSBY S. NOYES.

Crosby S. Noyes, editor of the Washington Evening Star, died shortly after 5:30 p. m. yesterday at the Hotel Raymond, Pasadena, Cal., where he had been ill for sometime.

Crosby Stuart Noyes was 83 years of age, and no less than 60 years of his manhood had been spent in the newspaper business. He was born in Minot, Me., February 16, 1825, and finding farm life too hard for his frail physique he went to Washington in 1847, making the last stages of his journey on foot, for lack of funds.

He began his newspaper work in the following year as a special correspondent and as a writer for the Washington News. From that date until a few weeks proceeding his death Mr. Noyes labored unceasingly at his chosen profession.

He became connected with the Washington Star as a reporter in 1855, when the paper was under the management of William D. Wallach.

In 1867 Mr. Noyes associated himself with several other gentlemen in the purchase of the property and since that time he has been one of the leading spirits in the direction of its business.

Mr. Noyes is survived by a wife, three sons (Theodore W. Noyes, president of the Evening Star Newspaper Company; Frank B. Noyes, editor and publisher of the Chicago Record-Herald and president of the Associated Press, and Thomas C. Noyes, news manager of the Star) and one daughter (Mrs. George W. Boyd, of Philadelphia.

NO TRANSFERS.

Shaking off amendment after amendment, the street railway bill pursued its onward course in the House yesterday, and when that body finally adjourned it was agreed by all that the measure would pass, practically as it had been reported by the District of Columbia committee. The three-cent-fare provision was defeated.

Representative Carlin, of Virginia, proposed an amendment so that the roads entering the District from Maryland and Virginia should issue universal transfers to the lines in Washington, even if there was no actual contact of tracks. This was aimed particularly to compel the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon road to transfer to the Capital Traction road. The lines of these companies do not touch at Twelfth and Pennsylvania avenue, but are separated by only a few feet. The provision would also have affected the Washington and Falls Church Company and the Great Falls and Old Dominion Company. Mr. Carlin's amendment had the hearty support of all the democrats, Minority Leader John Sharp Williams taking part in the debate in favor of the plan. The vote on the amendment was almost entirely a party vote. The amendment was lost by 46 to 31.

JUDGE BLACKSTONE.

Judge J. W. G. Blackstone, charged by citizens of Hampton and Phoebus with immorality, drunkeness and incompetency, at the hearing in Richmond yesterday before the house committee on courts of justice admitted that he had visited a disreputable resort one night and had telephoned from the house to Mayor Furnace, of Phoebus, asking that the music at the place be allowed to continue after midnight. Reference to friends of Blackstone with him at the house, was stricken from the records of the proceedings. The complainants closed their case to-day. The defense has thirty-six witnesses to disprove the charges.

Judge Blackstone's accusers admitted on the stand that while the judge is not as brilliant as formerly, he is still able to dispatch the business of his courts with rapidity and exactness.

The Legislature.

SENATE.

The Senate yesterday devoted a greater part of the session to discussing the bill to appropriate $250,000 to good roads in addition to the working of convicts. The bill provides that the money shall be distributed to the counties in proportion to the revenues paid to the State.

The Byrd omnibus liquor bill was reported by the Senate committee on finance with a number of amendments, that tend to make the bill more drastic, if it were possible to put further restrictions in a measure that liquor interests already declare to be practically prohibitive to their doing business in many sections of the State. The bill, as amended by the Senate committee, fixes a flat rate of license tax of $450 on all retail dealers, saloons and clubs throughout the State. This is an increase of $275 to saloons in small towns and of $100 in cities. All are now put on the same basis, and social clubs must also contribute to the State's revenue. The tax on distillers and breweries is also raised. The provisions prohibiting clubs as well as saloons from dispensing liquors on Sunday, Christmas or election days is retained, though the committee advanced the hour of opening to 5, retaining the provision requiring saloons and clubs to close at 12 o'clock midnight.

The Senate passed the bill making an appropriation of $450,000 for the Confederate pension list—to be pro-rated among the present pensioners, their widows and dependents.

HOUSE.

The house passed senate bill No. 1. The bill provides for the establishment of a State geological survey at the University of Virginia and to make provision for the preparation and publication of reports and maps to illustrate the natural resources of the State, together with the necessary investigation preparatory thereto.

The bill to appoint matrons for the female wards in the jails in the State was reported unanimously by the house committee on asylums and prisons. The bill provides a salary of $50 a week for such female wardens.

The House passed the Senate bill, providing for normal instruction in the high schools of the State.

The House finance committee reported with favorable recommendation the bill introduced by Delegate Throckmorton, of Henrico, regulating the collection of delinquent taxes and requiring city and county treasurers to include in tax tickets a statement of all the taxes due on the land for which such ticket is made.

The Williams bill to re-enact the old Wharton insurance law was passed. The measure forbids the combination of insurance companies for the purpose of maintaining rates. It is aimed primarily against the Southeastern Tariff Association. The vote was 45 to 35.

Virginia News.

A body of revenue officers visited all the pawnbrokers in Richmond yesterday and confiscated every pack of playing cards in the establishments they could find. At the same time they warned each pawnbroker that he was violating the internal revenue laws by having for sale packs of cards on which the revenue stamp had been broken.

Commissioner Franklin K. Lane, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, yesterday in Richmond concluded evidence upon charges of rebating made against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The evidence adduced at the hearing yesterday was similar to that given at previous hearings, and tended to show that the Chesapeake and Ohio had allowed rebates to Richmond shippers at the expense of its connecting lines. It is expected that the evidence taken at the hearing will be placed before the federal grand jury,

ALEXANDRIA'S GALA DAY.

Appropriate Observance of the Birthday of Washington—Full Turnout of Citizens—Imposing Pageant—Thousands of Visitors in the City—Profuse Decorations—City in Holiday Attire.

Alexandria became animated at an early hour this morning when the bell in the City Hall and those at the fire engine houses rang out and most of the whistles in the city sent forth shrill blasts.

It was not long before nearly every one in the city was astir, all anticipating the festivities which were to accompany the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of George Washington. The many flags, streamers and bunting on buildings were fluttering, and the city was in holiday attire. Many stores had been beautifully and tastefully decorated, while the windows were full of souvenirs of all varieties.

It was not long before visitors began to arrive in the city. Train followed train, each loaded to its fullest capacity, while the ferry steamer Lackawanna and the auxiliary steamer Jamestown brought thousands from Washington.

At 9 o'clock a committee proceeded to Mount Vernon and placed a wreath upon Washington's tomb. At Mt. Vernon the committee was met by Superintendent Dodge who made an appropriate address which was responded to by President J. Y. Williams, of the association.

Religious services were held in Christ Church at 10 o'clock, when Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph delivered an interesting and appropriate sermon. There was special music on the occasion. At noon the distinguished guests were received in Lee Camp Hall. At the same time the press was entertained at the press headquarters in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The military and other visiting organizations were entertained at the market building while the visiting firemen were served with refreshments at the engine houses.

At noon the floating population of Alexandria was enormous. By this time most of the out-of-town organizations which participated in the celebration had reached the city and were being entertained at different places by the various committees of the George Washington Birthday Association.

The crowds at Duke and Washington streets and King and Washington streets were growing all the time and as the hour drew near for the pageant to form and move the congestion at those points was great. The best of order was observed, every one being well-disposed and eager to enjoy the festivities of the occasion. It being Saturday and a school holiday, the younger generation was out in force and enjoying the occasion with all the enthusiasm of their nature,

Shortly after two o'clock the various organizations began to assemble. The maneuvers incident to the formation of the line of parade soon followed, and half an hour later each had been assigned to its proper place, after which the pageant began to move to the music of the many bands which entered into the procession.

FORMATION OF PROCESSION.

The formation of the procession was as follows:

Chief Marshal and Staff on Duke street, right resting on Washington; Military Division on Duke street, right resting on Pitt street, column extending down Duke to Lee, on Lee to Cameron, on Cameron to Washington.

Secret Organization Division right resting on Cameron, column on Royal to Queen, on Queen to Washington.

Fire Department Division right resting on Duke, column extending on Lee to Wolfe, on Wolfe to Fairfax, on Fairfax to Gibbon.

ROUTE.

The procession moved at 2:30 o'clock. The column formed on Duke street, with right resting on Washington street; moved then on Duke to Payne, Payne to Prince, Prince to Fairfax, Fairfax to Cameron, Cameron to Royal, Royal to King, King to Washington, Washington to Wythe and countermarched back to King thence to West, and disbanded.

The reviewing stand was at the northwest corner of King and Alfred streets.

THE PROCESSION.

The procession was formed as follows:

CARRIAGES.

Thomas L. Hall, Thomas Chauncey, P. T. Harrington and Jas. T. Patterson.

The Alexandria organizations were at their best and attracted deserved attention.

The Alexandria Light Infantry, the platoon of policemen, the fire companies, the Red Men and Junior Order of Americans made a creditable appearance and many handkerchiefs fluttered from fair hands as they moved through the streets over which the procession passed.

The Alexandria Light Infantry, which always attracts considerable attention in parade, was again the observed of all observers. The men appeared in new uniforms and were commanded by Captain Murphy.

The Junior Order of Mechanics formed an important part of the pageant. The Alexandria and Washington councils numbered about five hundred.

Osceola Tribe, No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, which always appears to advantage in a celebration, attracted much attention, the younger generation especially enjoying their appearance in the line. The braves were in Indian costume.

COLUMBIA ENGINE

Columbia Engine, No. 4, was a fine looking piece of machinery as it was drawn through the streets by three gray horses in charge of Mr. Henry Posey, driver; Mr. Noble L. Smith, engineer, and Mr. Wm. Lee Craven, fireman. It was polished to the queen's taste and looked as bright as a dollar just from the mint. The hose wagon, in charge of Driver Stephen Taylor, with two black horses, and five men, also presented a handsome appearance. But the reserve reel, which had been serviceable in days gone by, was covered with flowers and also held a 4-foot bust of George Washington surrounded with trimings of flowers and evergreen. This was driven by Mr. Henry Phillips and drawn by two bay horses. The company turned out 30 strong, each member carrying an imitation pipe nozzle and wearing the company uniform and a carnation and small American flag.

THE RELIEF COMPANY.

The Relief Truck appeared as spick and as spanless when it first came out of the shop, the driver, Mr. Clapdore and the members of the company having taken great pains to put the apparatus in good condition. The truck was drawn by three grey horses and eight members of the company rode upon the foot boards. The company was under command of Capt. R. M. Latham.

RELIANCE ENGINE.

Another thing of beauty was the Reliance fire engine as it was drawn over the route by three fine horses and in charge of Driver Julian Ballenger; Engineer Wm. H. Bonis and his fireman. It showed the skill of the mechanics which the city is fortunate to possess in its shining beauty. The hose wagon was much admired for its neatness and it was in charge of Driver Ernest Warder, Captain A. D. Grimes and five firemen. It was drawn by a pair of fine bay horses. Like No. 4 the hose reel was tastefully decorated; it was driven by Mr. George Prettyman, with a pair of bay horses. On the hose wagon was Lieut. Milton Glasgow and four men. The Reliance entered the parade ready for service in a moment's notice.

THE OLD COLUMBIA.

Last, but not least, of the fire engines, we want to take our hats off to the old Columbia as it once more paraded the streets before admiring thousands. As neat and trim and apparently in its former glory it was gazed on with admiration. On the top was a semi-circular wreath of flowers denoting "Old Champion" and without much other decoration to mar its natural beauty. It had a trio of roan horses and was in charge of Mr. Henry Allen, driver; engineer, William H. Wood; fireman, Frank L. Entwisle. It was really a pleasure for Alexandrians to see the old Columbia, one of the best fire-fighters this city ever possessed.

OLD FRIENDSHIP ENGINE.

The Veterans Friendship Fire Association with their historic engine, reel and plug-catchers, attracted considerable attention. The members wore light overcoats.

NOTES.

The weather today has been clear and cool and in every way suitable for the celebration.

A number of vendors of cheap jewelry, badges, buttons, &c., were on King street during the day.

Mr. William G. Lebew entertained at a dinner at his residence, 1022 King street, today, Mr. Clarence Bennett, of New York, who will be one of the speakers at the banquet to be given by Alexandria-Washington Lodge tonight; also Mr. J. E. Shinn, Worshipful Master of that lodge, and Messrs. R. W. Arnold, W. A. Moore and M. Ruben,

A feature of the parade was the number of horsemen who appeared in the line.

Capt. George K. Pickett and Mr. George T. Caton acted as escorts for receiving the military companies upon their arrival.

Many citizens kept open house during the day and most hospitably entertained their friends

The Culpeper Minute Men were commanded by Capt. E. L. Slaughter and presented a fine soldierly appearance. They mustered 27 men. The Warrenton Rifles failed to appear.

The Minute Men, of Washington, attired in Continental uniforms, and the District Naval Reserves, in command of Lieut. John Doyle Carmody, of Washington, were attractive features.

The Washington Fire Department showed up handsomely today in the line of march under Chief Engineer William T. Belt. No. 13 Engine Company under Capt. Harper with eleven firemen; No. 18 Engine Company under Capt. Hanlon with eleven firemen; No. 7 Truck Company under Capt. Brown with eleven men. No. 2 Combination Chemical Company, under Capt. Leitz with eleven men; Captains Warren and Green were the marshals of the occasion.

The most imposing spectacle in the parade was the United States troops. The personal appearance of the men, their well-caparisoned horses and accoutrements attracted deserved attention. They were under command of Col. Rumbaugh.

The streets presented an animated appearance last night. Most of the business places were decorated, adding to this beauty the windows of most of the establishments had been neatly trimmed.

It went to show that the progressive and patriotic sentiment had not lost caste in the years that had passed since the last celebration. It showed that the citizens believe in fostering the memory of our great citizen who has passed to the beyond.

On the reviewing stand were Mayor Padi, Congressman Brewer, Commissioner Macfarland, of Washington, and Mr. Rudolph, president of the Washington Chamber of Commerce.

Fire in Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Feb, 22.—Fire which broke out in the council chambers in the city hall at 4:50 a. m. did $25,000 damage to the building and destroyed records of inestimable value. The council chamber and attic were completely burned out. The fire was under control at 6 a. m.

THISTLES AND DANDRUFF.

An Interesting Parallel and a Valuable Deduction Therefrom.

Cutting down thistles no more relieves the land of thistles than does scouring the scalp cure dandruff. In each case permanent relief can only come from eradicating permanently the cause. A germ that plows up the scalp in searching for the hair root where it saps the vitality, causes dandruff, falling hair, and baldness. If you kill that germ, you'll have no dandruff but a luxuriant suit of hair. Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation in the world that cures dandruff and falling hair by killing the germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

MISS DAINGERFIELD WEDS

Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom attended the wedding in New York yesterday evening of Miss Sarah Vowell Daingerfield, of this city daughter of Mr. Edward L. Daingerfield, and Mr. Charles Goldsborough Stirling, of New York, son of the late Archibald Stirling, of Baltimore, which took place in St Thomas' Church, Fifth avenue, at 6 o'clock, The only usher was the bride's brother, Mr. F. L. Daingerfield, of Alexandria. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary H. Daingerfield, and was given away by her father. Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of St. Thomas' Church, performed the marriage ceremony, which was followed by a small reception in the Hotel Belmont for the members of the two families, Mr. and Mrs. Stirling will make a bridal trip South, after which they will live in the Graham Court Apartments, New York. Mr. Stirling is in business in that city.

STOLE A CAN OF LARD.

The proprietor of a King street grocery store had occasion to enter the cellar at his place of business last night when he discovered a colored man named Charles Baltimore about to emerge with a can of lard. The grocery-man attempted to stop him, but the darker proved the fleeter and ran with his plunder. The proprietor gave chase and the negro in running dropped some of the lard from the can in the street. Officer Talbot captured Baltimore and he was brought before the Police Court this morning. After the testimony for the prosecution had been taken, Baltimore testified in his defense. He said he had been drinking and had entered the cellar where he had deposited his dinner pail. When he saw the proprietor of the store he seized what he supposed was his dinner pail and ran, but was surprised to find he had picked up a can of lard. Justice Caton sent Baltimore to jail for 60 days.

RECEPTION.

One of the most interesting receptions of the winter was given yesterday afternoon by Miss Cummings at her residence on Cameron street in honor of Mrs. Wm. F. Cox, of Richmond, national president of the Colonial Dames. Mrs. Cox and Miss Cummings were assisted in receiving by the ladies of the Alexandria Circle of Colonial Dames and by Mrs. Wm. A. Smoot, regent of Mt. Vernon Chapter D. A. R. The other guests were members of the Cameron Club and of the Mt. Vernon Chapter D. A. R. The rooms were beautiful in their decoration of blue and buff, and in the dining room Mrs. Wm. J. Morton, Mrs. Wm. B. Smoot and Mrs. Wm. J. Booth presided over the pretty tables, on which were carried out in every detail the colonial colors.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of your Kidneys and Bladder pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills". They are sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Davis, charged with improper conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Chas. Baltimore, colored, charged with petit larceny, was sent to jail for 60 days.

A young man, charged with assaulting an acquaintance, was fined $2.50

BAZAAR.

The musical and bazaar held at Lee Camp Hall last night, for the benefit of the Braddock Heights Episcopal Mission, was well attended and greatly enjoyed. The programme was well rendered and each number enchored. Later refreshments were served and a sale of fancy articles was held.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

Some broken sizes in Hess shoes $5 and $6 grades, $2.50 get them, if you are quick. Marshall, 422 King street

ELKS' CARNIVAL.

One would have thought that the excitement incident to the parade today would have kept many on the streets and shortened the door receipts of the carnival. But not so, for up to the hour of eleven o'clock 620 paid admissions were reported by Mr. Morris, who had charge of the office last night. The usual good cheer prevailed and everyone who attended seemed to be bent on having a good time. Dancing seems to be much enjoyed and the finale, in the shape of a "Hook-em-up Sneezer" is participated in by the young and old, without regard to the ability of dancer, Some engage in this who can not even walk real good. The Cigar Booth, where there is a bevy of blushing black-eyed and black-haired maidens, seems to attract more and more nightly. The future reader is kept busy and judging from the faith of those who have their futures told he must be marvelous. The "Chinamen" make merry all during the evening and tonight a duet in the Mongolian tongue will be sung by Messrs. P. F. Downey and Frank Smith. Those who have heard this pronounce it a great hit. Owing to the fact that a great many people who would like to see the decorations at the armory have requested a continuance of the carnival the committee have decided to continue it for a few days longer. Interest seems to increase nightly and many will be sorry when this charming mid-winter entertainment is brought to a close.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, will commence a series of special sermons tomorrow. His subjects are "The Prodigal's Departure, or the Wanderer Lost;" "The Prodigal's Return, or the Wanderer's Restoration to the Love of the Father's Heart;" "The Prodigal's Reception, or the Reinstatement of the Wanderer to the Father's Home."

A men's meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Young People's building of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, when Representative Lloyd, of Missouri, will deliver an address. His subject will be "That Man Jesus." A solo will be rendered on the occasion by Miss Kate Smoot.

A series of revival services will be inaugurated at the Washington street M. E. Church, south, to continue until Sunday March 8. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. D. Vance Price of North Carolina. Mr. Price is the nephew of the late Senator Zeb Vance. He is a preacher of unusual ability and will preach daily during the meeting. The singing will be led by a large chorus. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Robert E. Rogers and Miss Maggie M. Scott will be married at the residence of the bride on Wednesday night next.

Rev. J. J. Gravatt, rector of Holy Trinity Church, Richmond, will preach in St. Paul's Church tomorrow both morning and night.

The engagement is announced of Miss Nora Carlye Herbert, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Arthur Herbert and Mr. Robert Pegram Holt of Newport News.

Mrs. R. B. Adams of Alexandria and Miss Carrie Johnson of Salem, who have been visiting their father in this city, left today for Alexandria.—[Charlottesville Progress.

RIVER NOTES.

The officers of the steamer Norfolk which arrived up early this morning had nothing of interest to report.

The Baltimore and lower river steamers are now running on schedule time.

The Virginia police steamer Rappahannock was at the dock at the foot of Cameron street this morning.

The four-masted schooner Joseph G. Ray, from Punta Gords, Fla., with rock phosphate for the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company, has arrived.

PRETTY DANCE.

The Alexandria German Club gave another of their very popular dances at McBurney's Hall last night which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. The hall was beautifully decorated with smilax and electric lights. The chaperones were Mrs. G. A. Mushbach, Mrs. Julian T. Miller, Mrs. George Uhler, Mrs. J. S. Douglas, Mrs. E. L. Kemper, Mrs. C. W. Ashby and Mrs. W. B. Daingerfield. The german was led by Mr. Harry Beverley and Judge L. C. Barley.

DIED FROM HER INJURIES.

Georgianna Lewis, colored, who was run over by a locomotive at a coal pile belonging to the Southern Railway, a short distance southwest of the depot, yesterday afternoon, died at the Alexandria Hospital shortly after being taken to that institution. Her right leg had been cut off and there was a compound fracture of the left. She was also seriously injured on other parts of her body.

SPECIAL SERMONS.

Rev. J. R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, is delivering every Sunday night, special sermons on the great men of the Old Testament. Each night lessons pertinent to this day and generation are drawn from the lives of the ancients. Tomorrow night Mr. Sevier will speak of Moses during the forty years of his redirement in Midian, where he attended the school of God on the banksides of the desert.

ENTERTAINED.

The Rambler's Club, a social organization, handsomely entertained a great many visitors at their rooms on Cameron street. The members were diligent in their attention to the guests. In addition a number of other clubs entertained.

FOUND GUILTY.

In the Circuit Court for the County yesterday evening Frank Hitchcock, indicted for an assault upon Mrs. Bessie Beach last August, was found guilty and fined $300 and sentenced to serve six months in jail.

ODD FELLOWS.

At the meeting of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows last night it was decided to accept an invitation to institute a lodge at Front Royal in the near future. Degrees were conferred upon several candidates.

Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, pleasant little pills. They are easy to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

All want the best. The Hess, Walk Over, Red Cross, and Queen Quality Shoes are to be had at J. A. Marshall & Bro's., 422 King street. nov21 tf

PATRIOTIC SERVICES.

Religious and patriotic services were held at Christ Church this morning in honor of Washington's birthday. The services were under the auspices of Mount Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., and was largely attended. A most interesting address on the life and character of Washington was delivered by Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph of the diocese of Southern Virginia. The speaker brought to mind many interesting chapters in the life of Washington which he portrayed in a graphic manner. Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of the church, and Rev. Everard Meade, of Pohick Church, assisted in the services.

MASONIC BANQUET.

Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons will tonight hold their annual banquet in celebrating the birth of George Washington at one time Master of that lodge. Among the invited guests who will make speeches are Speaker Cannon, Hon. J. T. Heflin, of Alabama; Mr. Clarence Bennett, of New York; Grand Master J. W. Eggleston, of Virginia, and others. This evening a special car will go to Washington and bring the invited guests to this city.

Today fraternal messages were exchanged between Liberty Lodge of Beverly, Mass., and Alexandria Washington Lodge.

HOLD UP.

A colored woman named Rosie Denning, who lives in Fairfax county, appeared at the station house this morning and reported that about two weeks ago she was held up near her home across Hunting creek, knocked down and robbed. She accuses Edward Downs and the others now being held here for highway robbery as being her assailants.

HOLIDAY.

Today is a holiday, and is being very generally observed as such. The public offices were closed at an early hour and the postoffice kept Sunday hours. Business as a rule was practically suspended.

THE BOND MEASURE.

Richmond, February 21, 1908.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

The Bond measure passed the House several days ago, and yesterday I secured a report from the finance committee with one amendment to the House Bill. This amendment does not in any way hurt Alexandria, as it provide that the city authorities of Alexandrias, may, by ordinance, provide for such sinking fund as it sees proper. The bill is now on the calendar of the Senate.

I have also secured the passage by the House of a resolution to amend section 170 of the constitution, relating to the right of municipalities to assess abutting property owners for the improvement of streets, not exceeding 50 per cent of the cost. This resolution is now before the Senate committee and I am making strenuous efforts to get it on the floor of the Senate.

Very truly yours,
JAS. R CATON.

Money can be saved by buying your Shoes at Marshall's, 422 King street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There will be no children's service at Christ Church tomorrow evening.

There was a small supply of country produce in market this morning. Prices were unchanged.

Mr. Cicero Beckham died in Washington yesterday. The deceased was at one time a blacksmith at the Southern Railway depot in this city, and resided in West End.

Fred Stohlman has filed suit in Washington against the Washington and Potomac Steamboat Company in the District Supreme Court for an accounting. The plaintiff alleges that the company owes him $571.52.

An inmate of the Orphan Asylum at Salem, Va., will sing and recite at the Sunday school of the Baptist Church at 9:30 tomorrow morning. Several converts will be baptized in the church at night.

James E. Rose, formally of this city, has been awarded the contract for furnishing three thousand five hundred tons of furnace coal for the new House of Represenatives office building, Washington.

SATURDAY EVENING, FEB. 22, 1908.

A Crisis and a Craze.

There are two forces which cause modern England to move—a crisis and a craze. It is far less necessary to do something that is great now in this country than it is to do something that will attract the attention of a great many. The circumstances might have had a curious effect on the celebrated of the past could they have delayed existing until now. For instance, Shakespeare today would probably have had to attempt to swim the channel to sustain the attention of playgoers, Cromwell might have found it advisable to take trips in a "navigable balloon" to keep himself before the general public, Garrick might have elected to descend from the skies in a parachute to advertise himself satisfactorily, and it might have been necessary for the beautiful Duchess of Devonshire, to maintain her social reputation, to figure occasionally in the divorce court. Motor accidents, thefts of jewelry and of other property, free and civil and criminal actions are, of course, more important elements in the building up and maintaining of a "reputation" among us now than is mere excellence.—London Truth.

Explosion by Music.

One of the most dangerous of all explosives is a black powder called iodide of nitrogen. When it is dry the slightest touch will often cause it to explode with great violence. There appears to be a certain rate of vibration which this compound cannot resist. In experiments to determine the cause of its extreme explosiveness some damp iodide of nitrogen was rubbed on the strings of a bass viol. It is known that the strings of such an instrument will vibrate when those of a similar instrument having an equal tension are played upon. In this case, after the explosive had become thoroughly dry upon the strings, another bass viol was brought near and the strings sounded. At a certain note the iodide of nitrogen on the prepared instrument exploded. It was found that the explosion occurred only when a rate of vibration of sixty a second was communicated to the prepared strings. Vibration of the G string caused an explosion, while that of the E string had no effect.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Everything in Proportion.

For many weeks the irritable merchant had been riveted to his bed by typhoid fever. Now he was convalescing. He clamored for something to eat, declaring that he was starving.

"Tomorrow you may have something to eat," promised the doctor. The merchant realized that there would be a restraint to his appetite, yet he saw in vision a modest steaming meal placed at his bedside.

"Here is your dinner," said the nurse next day as she gave the glowering patient a spoonful of tapioca pudding, "and the doctor emphasizes that everything else you do must be in the same proportion."

Two hours later the nurse heard a frantic call from the bedchamber.

"Nurse," breathed the man heavily, "I want to do some reading. Bring me a postage stamp."—Harper's Weekly.

Force of a Cyclone.

Careful estimate of the force of a cyclone and the energy required to keep a hurricane in active operation reveals the presence of a power that makes the mightiest efforts of man appear as nothing in comparison. A force equal to more than 400,000,000 horsepower was estimated as developed in a West Indian cyclone. This greatly exceeds the power that could be developed by all the means within the range of man's capabilities. Were steam, water, windmills and the strength of all men and animals combined they could not even approach the tremendous force of this mighty power.—Chicago Journal.

Word Derivations.

"Disaster" is an astrological term meaning "unfavorable star," one of the many words that astrology has bequeathed to the English language. "Predominant," "ill starred," "in the ascendant," are other instances, not to speak of the expression "My stars!" Even "influence" is really astrological, signifying the flowing in upon human affairs of the power of some heavenly body. "Petrel" and "petrol" both descend from "petra," a rock. "Petrol" comes directly enough through "petroleum," rock oil, but "petrel" through St. Peter, after whom the bird was named because it appeared to walk upon the waves.

The Wheelbarrow.

The farmer's son looked up from the sporting page.

"By heck," he said, "I wish we had one o' them there hossless carriages."

"We have," returned the farmer, "and now that you mention it, you might jest as well git it and fetch up a load o' turnips from the three acre lot."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Courage.

"Henry is a brave man. The other night his wife thought she heard a burglar."

"And he went down?"

"No. He had the courage to tell her he was afraid."—Circle.

EASTON'S PLANT WORN OUT.

Rundown Machinery and Dark Streets. Appeal to Corporations.

Easton, Pa., is one of the cities that, having tried municipal ownership of lighting plants, have found it wanting. In a recent message to the city councils Mayor March said that, although he is a believer in the theory of city ownership, nevertheless he would "prefer to hand over the city lighting to private corporations rather than see large districts in darkness, as has often been the case in the last six months."

Continuing, he characterized this as "dangerous from the police point of view" and unbearable from the citizen's, adding that if the city continues to operate the plant it "must be run as a private corporation would run it." There should not only be economy, but the machinery should be constantly repaired and renewed, both for efficiency and "to keep up with modern progress in electric lighting."

Much of the machinery being almost worn out, he advises that arrangements be made to borrow current from a local company in case of breakdown that the city streets may not be kept in darkness while repairs are going on. He does not say what he would advise were municipal ownership complete and there were no private companies.

Built in 1886, the construction cost of Easton's electric light plant to date has been about $70,000. In a summary of the situation the Sunday Call, which appears originally to have favored the enterprise, says the plant isn't satisfactory and the city hasn't the money to renew it. The companies must now be asked to put in bids for city lighting. The Call thinks they can furnish it cheaper than the city can itself. Easton's lighting experiment, the paper adds, "has been costly and unsatisfactory." The city was bonded to establish the plant, and now that it is worn out and almost useless the debt remains.

Nothing has ever been charged up for depreciation, but the people were told that this was unnecessary, as the plant was being kept in good repair. Fifty thousand dollars was spent in "patching up" the plant, but the statement that it was kept in good order is now proved untrue, and so is the statement that the cost was less than a private corporation would have charged for the same service, though many people believed both statements for a time.

According to a special to the New York Times, women and children are not considered safe on Easton's streets at night, and sixty firms and business men have petitioned that the street lighting be turned over to a private corporation at once.

THE FUNNY SIDE OF M. O.

Politics in City Departments—A Queer Veto—City Poles Downed.

Public Service is not a humorous publication, but there were some funny items in its December issue. Commenting on the proposition of the Business Men's club of Cincinnati that civil service rules should be introduced into the municipal department, Mr. Miller, a member of the board of public service, is quoted as saying, "I think the first requisite for a good official is that he should be a good Democrat."

The mayor of Bluffton, Ind., is more subtly humorous. He advocates municipal ownership as an antidote for monopoly and then vetoes a franchise for a gas plant because it would compete with the municipal electric light works and "probably would reduce the city's $40,000 plant to a mass of junk." This is rather more than a tacit admission that the consumers are paying through the nose.

But the funniest thing of all is that some of the citizens of Chicago had to go to law to compel the city electrical department to obey its own laws. Because such construction is much cheaper this department undertook to erect poles in a district where the ordinances require wires to be placed underground. The citizens appealed to the department to protect them from what they assumed to be the intrusion of a private company. Instead of being allayed their indignation was rather increased when they learned their mistake, and they did not stop until the city council passed an ordinance requiring the removal of the poles.

Municipal Wages in England.

As the result of an application from employees for an increase of wages, the Salford (England) tramways committee has recommended to the municipality, which owns and operates the line, that the wages of conductors be raised to 11 cents per hour on appointment, 12 cents per hour after one year of service and 13 cents per hour after three years of service. Another municipality advertises for a car shed night foreman at $9 per week.—Electrical World.

Ashtabula's Disastrous Experience.

The city council of Ashtabula, O., recently passed an ordinance directing that the municipal electric light plant be sold to the highest bidder. The plant began operations in 1892. The construction cost exceeding $88,000, of which $50,000 is regarded as a total loss owing to the plant having been allowed to run down. Although operated on moonlight schedule, the average cost of arc lights has been in excess of $100 a year.

When to Knock the M. O. Idea.

A good time to knock the foolishness of municipal ownership out of a man is when he is about to step into the tax collector's office. He can then see what would happen to him if he became a joint owner in the whole thing.—Exchange.

DARING ROBBERY.

After holding up a brakeman who had surprised them in the act of robbing a freight car in the New York Central yards at Eighty-fifth street, New York, early yesterday, and making him a prisoner at the point of revolvers until they had finished looting the car, three men were overpowered by detectives after a desperate fight. In the arrest of the men the police believe they have a gang which has stolen many thousands of dollars' worth of goods from freight cars during the past few months.

The men were at work on a car door when a brakeman on a train which had just drawn in from from Albany saw them and called out to them to get away from the cars. Their reply, which was enforced by three leveled revolvers, was that if the brakeman attempted to come down from the car he would be "shot as full of holes as a screen door." Then, while one of their number remained on guard over the brakeman, the others returned to their work. After they had removed a quantity of valuable goods from the car the thieves carefully sealed the door with a counterfeit seal.

It was then that the detectives came upon the scene. They had been waiting all night in the yards in hope of catching the men who had been using false seals for a month and had witnessed the encounter between the brakeman and the robbers.

When the door had been sealed four detectives sprang down from the car tops where they had been hiding. In a desperate hand-to-hand fight which followed the detectives were finally victorious and the three men were locked up. The men gave their names as John T. Hughes, Alfred Rogers and Peter Brady. In a boathouse, where Hughes had lived, the detectives found goods valued at more than $1,000.

The soothing spray of Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, used in an atomizer, is an unspeakable relief to sufferers from Catarrh. Some of them describe it as a Godsend, and no wonder. The thick, foul discharge is dislodged and the patient breathes freely, perhaps for the first time in weeks. Liquid Cream Balm contains all the healing, purifying elements of the solid form, and it never fails to satisfy. Sold by all druggists for 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

The newspapor in the home is a necessity. Get one that can be safely read by the entire family. The Tribune is a paper that prints all the news of the world in such a manner as to be readable without offending the laws of good taste. It is a human paper—one edited by men and women; and while, at times, it may occasionally make mistakes, its readers believe and trust in it. There is nothing ever printed in The Tribune that will not instruct and educate, just as it is a fact there is nothing ever printed that will offend decency.

With The Sunday Tribune you get a handsome illustrated supplement of timely topics and a superb twenty page magazine with colored cover, which contains most interesting fiction and short stories by well known authors. This, with other sections, goes to make up one of the most complete and interesting Sunday Newspapers published.

The Daily and Sunday Tribune is the ideal family newspaper. A dollar bill sent to the Circulation Department of The Tribune, New York, will bring The Daily and Sunday Tribune into your family for one month. Or send $10 for one year.
